EASi Releases Interactive Reporting

Pleasanton, CA – December 3, 2014 - Equity Administration Solutions, Inc. (EASi), the largest independent stock plan software-as-a-service company in the world, announces the release and immediate availability of EASi's Interactive Reporting. This new functionality provides users additional control over the organization and presentation of their data. The modern reporting architecture provides companies with superior report customization within the EASi application. EASi's new Interactive Reporting allows users to:

- Simplify reporting processes by providing greater reporting functionality within the EASi platform
- Save time with added filtering capabilities, one-click sorting and drag and drop columns
- Improve data analysis through the application of conditional formatting
- Increase productivity with the ability to save customized report definitions
- Deliver greater control over the size, order and visibility of columns
- Allow clients to export custom reports directly to PDF, Microsoft Office, print and email

“We are excited about the power and efficiency that EASi's new Interactive Reporting capabilities will bring to our customers' workflows. This new feature set will allow for tremendous simplification of both recurring and ad hoc reporting processes,” said Michael Madigan, Senior Vice President, Product Management and Strategy. “Built on a robust industry-leading reporting platform, this functionality complements EASi's existing market-leading reporting capabilities and will allow us to bring additional reporting enhancements to market in 2015.”

With recent acquisitions of OptionAdmin and Rivet Software, EASi continues to exhibit significant momentum in the equity compensation and financial compliance technology spaces.
