Mary L. Schapiro, former SEC Chairman, to keynote EASi Customer Summit

Pleasanton, CA – November 10, 2014 – Equity Administration Solutions, Inc. (EASi), the largest independent stock plan software-as-a-service technology company, announces that Mary L. Schapiro, former U.S. SEC Chairman, will deliver the keynote address at the EASi Summit 2015 user conference being held March 25-27.

“One of the highlights of this year’s meeting will certainly be the question-and-answer session with Chairman Schapiro,” said Leslie Leach, vice president of marketing for EASi. “Her vast regulatory leadership uniquely positions her to guide our community of finance and compensation professionals on issues of good corporate governance, financial regulation, and enforcement policy and focus.”

In its fourth edition, EASi Summit 2015 will bring together more than 250 finance and equity compensation professionals in Lake Buena Vista, Florida at Disney’s BoardWalk Resort. The event will feature advanced user training for the EASi platform, and panel discussions on the latest equity compensation and financial compliance topics. Attendees will also be introduced to new products, including the Crossfire financial filing and reporting platform, a new offering resulting from EASi’s September 2014 acquisition of Rivet Software. To celebrate the milestone of serving more than 1,200 companies worldwide, EASi will host an evening gala with its partners and clients at EPCOT Center.

About Mary L. Schapiro:

Mary L. Schapiro was the 29th Chairman of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Chairman Schapiro was appointed by President Barack Obama on January 20, 2009. She is the first person to have served as Chairman of both the SEC and Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Prior to becoming SEC Chairman, she was CEO of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). Chairman Schapiro earned a Juris Doctor degree from George Washington University in 1980. Chairman Schapiro received a Visionary Award from the National Council on Economic Education (NCEE) in 2008, honoring her as a “champion of economic empowerment.”
